

Love Pictures

Love is everything...
But, how does one love?
Visions that dance in our heads,
Those, our Father provides from above.

I descry love exceedingly beautiful;
It's as though it's an infinite emotion.
I envision love as togetherness,
Best friends, understanding, and devotion.

When thoughts of you, the feeling is joy;
It's special; it's everything I live for.
Pictures of...
 Flowered fields at sun set;
 An early morning ocean walk;
 You and I under the same blanket;
 Watching a winter snow storm by candlelight...
 And for you, there's yet much more.

Love, like everything, can sometimes get you down.
But, true love uses its vitality many ways.
Its understanding, listening, bending, forgiving, touching, it's love...always!
