

A “Perfectify” Woman ~ From a Man’s Point of View

By Steven E. Connor

A Perfectify Woman is someone who is beautiful in every way! PER-FECT-I-FY is a word Kristi Larsen created and trademarked. It’s a verb (per-fekt uh-fahy). I know what you’re thinking, no one is perfect.

From a man’s point of view, may I ask you to try this on for a moment? Imagine wearing something that would enhance your natural God given beauty as a woman. Let’s suppose this was created especially for you—it could improve your health, your thoughts and how you look and feel about yourself. Now, quiet your mind, be still and imagine being better than you’ve ever been; without judgment, without bias, without comparing yourself to anyone or anything. When you look in the mirror, I want you to not only see with your eyes, I want you to see through your eyes!

What I know for sure—the beauty of a woman is not in the clothes she wears, the figure she carries, or the way she styles her hair. We all know that being perfect is an unattainable illusion. Being beautiful is something you choose to be. You don’t need anyone’s permission or validation to be beautiful. The most natural beauty in the world is the beauty within you, conforming absolutely to the description or definition of who you are and where you are today! Infinite beauty reveals your spirit, your heart and soul. Set yourself free, love yourself first, and then offer the best of you to those you care deeply for!

When I look into your eyes, I see the beauty that belongs only to you, a presence that invites me to smile from deep within my soul, and the warmth of your caress that empowers me to feel special and loved. You are my Perfectify woman! Everyone needs someone or something to love. I love happiness, and you make me happy. I love touching...and mostly your skin to mine. I love conversation, your expression of sentiment. I love the way grace mirrors your heart, creating a perfect place for me to share this journey with you.

An English professor wrote these words on the blackboard and asked the students to punctuate it correctly, “Woman without her man is nothing.” The men wrote: “Woman, without her man, is nothing.” The women wrote: “Woman! Without her, man is nothing.”

Perfectify Woman, once you tap into this limitless power of self-transformation, the only question remaining is how far you want it to take you. This path is available to anyone, but is only taken by those who select themselves. If this invitation speaks to you now, it probably has before, and most likely won’t go away. Now is the time to take the leap and enjoy the journey. The gift of learning is teaching, and reflecting the light of love on the pathway of serving others. God is in control, accept the outcome as perfect, our greatest gift is to be present and observe, to connect to our deepest knowing and discover our gifts and the gifts within others. It’s all good, because you are beautiful...all over! Make every day special and know that you are loved!

Thank you Kristi Larsen for unleashing your bold beautiful self and creating a perfect magazine for women to step into their divine beauty!
